Mr. and Mrs. George Squires are celebrating the going of the old year and the coming of the new in right royal fashion. Besides several other affairs given at their home and mentioned elsewhere they entertained the stake board of the Young Ladies and Young Men's Mutual Improvement association and their partners last evening. Progressive games were played and a "fun prize" was awarded the highest score. Music and dancing were other enjoyable features of the evening's pleasure. Lunch was served. About sixty guests were in attendance. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Squires will be the hosts to the employees of the American Steam Laundry and another splendid time is anticipated.

Thursday evening the Odd Fellows entertained at a delightful social commemorating home coming week in their lodge. A fine program was rendered, numbers being given as follows: Address on Truth, Rev. J. F. Miller. Vocal solo, Miss McCausland. Piano solo, Miss McCulloch. Reading, Mrs. Winchell. Speech, Mr. H. G. Hayball. At the conclusion a delicious supper was served and during its duration several splendid musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Wiscomb and company. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

The Unity Circle met with Miss Ellen Nielsen as hostess this week. Miss Blanch Cooper gave a most interesting lecture on Child Welfare and a musical treat was enjoyed when Miss Nayneen Farrell who is at home from Chicago for the holidays sang two beautiful solos. Special guests of the afternoon were Miss Johnson and Mrs. Fred Thomas.

On New Year's day the Budge family were very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Julia Nibley at her beautiful home on West Center street. The rooms were bright with holiday decorations and a delicious dinner was served. Covers were laid for thirty-two.

John T. Caine III, Dr. R. J. Evans, Dr. M. H. Harris and Mrs. Rena B. Maycock left the last part of last week for Berkeley, California, where they will attend the convention of the Extension Workers of the eleven western states.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Merrell spent part of the week at Richmond.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

There is in the city statutes an ordinance that prohibits the strewing of ashes upon the sidewalks and pavements of the city a practice quite common during the winter months, but one that must be stopped, as numerous complaints of cut bicycle and automobile tires by glass or nails in the ashes have reached this office. All persons will please bear this caution in mind and thereby avoid trouble.

Its Greatest Service

YOU hear that woollens are scarce this season but see plenty of clothes in the show windows.

Do not be confused—the shortage is in fine woollens and the demand for good clothing unusually heavy. At best not more than half the orders for Kuppenheimer Suits and Overcoats can be filled.

The House will never lower its standard of quality to increase its output. Its greatest service under all conditions is to sustain the Kuppenheimer reputation for style, all-wool fabric and tailoring.
